Intellectual Property

The contents of the Site, such as text, graphics, logos, audio clips, video, photographs, software, trademarks (“One Communications Trademarks”), and other information (the "Proprietary Content") is, unless otherwise noted, the property of One Communications, its affiliates or partners. The Proprietary Content is protected by federal, state and international copyright and trademark laws, or other proprietary rights. These rights are protected in all forms, media and technologies existing now or hereinafter developed.

You may print and download portions of material from the different areas of the Site solely for your non-commercial use. No portion of the Proprietary Content may be reprinted, republished, modified, or distributed in any form without the express written permission of One Communications. You may not reproduce, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, modify, transmit, sell, distribute, license or create derivative works of any of the Proprietary Content. You may not make any unauthorized copies of any Proprietary Content.

Certain Proprietary Content may be licensed from third parties and all such third party content and all intellectual property rights related to the third party content belong to the respective third parties. In addition, certain trademarks are the property of their respective third party owners, and the use of trademarks, logos, or brand names in the Site are for identification purposes only, and does not imply an endorsement by One Communications of the trademark owner, or vice-versa, or that such trademark owner has authorized One Communications to promote its products, services, or content. You may not remove any copyright, trademark or other intellectual property or proprietary notice or legend contained on the Site or the Proprietary Content. Any rights not expressly granted by this Agreement or any applicable end-user license agreements are reserved by One Communications.

Except as expressly provided above, nothing contained herein shall be construed as conferring by implication, estoppel or otherwise any license or right under any patent, copyright or trademark of One Communications or any third party.

Acceptable Uses of Intellectual Property

One Communications’ IP Products and Services shall not be used to transmit, re-transmit, or store any content or to engage in any activity that infringes the intellectual property rights or privacy rights of One Communications or any individual, group or entity, including but not limited to any rights protected by any copyright, patent, trademark, trade secret, trade dress, right of privacy, right of publicity, moral rights or other intellectual property right now known or later recognized by statute, judicial decision or regulation.

While One Communications reserves the right to restrict any actions alleged to violate the intellectual property rights of another party, it is not One Communications’ policy to decide whether claimed infringements are valid or not. Thus, while Customer consents to One Communications’ right to suspend Service if Customer is alleged to be violating another's rights, One Communications may also permit the continuing activity of its Customer despite allegations of an infringement where Customer in writing: (1) fully assumes responsibility for its activity; and (2) agrees to fully indemnify One Communications for all damages, claims, expenses and attorneys fees as a result of the alleged infringement.
